2. Guest Lecture on Biotechnology ,Molecular Biology and organic Farming By Alumni

Vanam Manam Plantation programme Government College for Women, Guntur

The Alumni "Guest Lecture" was organized by the Botany at Government College for Women, Guntur, on 16-09-2018 . This event aimed to foster connections between the college's alumni and current students. The program was conducted under the guidance of Sri. Ch. Pulla Reddy, Vice Principal, with the assistance of P. Parvathi, Lecturer in English, K. Sudha Rani, Lecturer in Botany, N. Ankamma, Lecturer in Zoology, and M. J. Sandhya, Lecturer in Botany.

Prof. T.N. Mary, a distinguished retired principal of ANU and an esteemed alumna of GCW (A) Guntur, recently delivered an enlightening guest lecture on Biotechnology and the latest trends in Molecular Biology. She captivated the audience, engaging in a lively Q&A session with the students, who eagerly absorbed her insights.

In addition, P. Parvathi, another notable alumna of GCW (A), presented an inspiring lecture on Organic Farming. Her discussion shed light on the myriad benefits of organic practices, resonating deeply with the many students hailing from agricultural backgrounds.

Following these insightful lectures, the speakers and participants joined in the "Vanam Manam" program, a government initiative spearheaded by the Botany Department. This plantation drive saw enthusiastic participation from FAC Principal Dr. Ch. Pullareddy, HoD Dr. Ch. Bhaskar Rao, faculty members, and students. The event was not only enriching for the students but also significantly beneficial for the department, fostering a sense of community and environmental stewardship.

The Lady Hope Alumni Association hosted a delightful get-together

Alumni Get -together was conducted in Seminar Hall of Government College for Women (A), Guntur, on March 16, 2019. This memorable event was orchestrated under the esteemed leadership of Dr. Ch. Pulla Reddy, the FAC Principal. The occasion was further honored by the presence of IQAC Coordinator K. Vijaya Babu, Vice Principal Captain Bhaskara Rao, faculty members, and students.

The event commenced with an inspiring opening address by Principal Dr. Ch. Pulla Reddy. Following this, D. Uma Nischal, the convenor, delivered a concise report on the association's recent activities. The alumni members, deeply connected to their alma mater, shared their thoughts on the upcoming NAAC visit and recounted their experiences, offering invaluable insights to the current batch of students.

A significant announcement was made by IQAC Coordinator Dr. K. Vijayababu, who declared that henceforth, International Women's Day on March 8th would be celebrated as Alumni Day at GCW(A), Guntur. This decision adds a meaningful tradition to the institution's calendar.

The gathering was graced by distinguished alumni, including Prof. T. N. Mary, retired Principal of ANU; Mrs. Basavapunnamma Garu; Mrs. T. Tulasamma, retired Physics lecturer; Mrs. Jaya Garu; and Mrs. Lalitha Shekar, all of whom shared their rich experiences and heartfelt memories of their time at the college.

Adding to the day's warmth, Dr. B. Varalakshmi, retired Reader in English, graciously arranged a sumptuous lunch for all participants. The event also marked the inauguration of the newly renovated waiting hall by Dr. Tulasamma Garu and Mrs. Basavapunnamma Garu (Retired RJD), symbolizing the continuous growth and improvement of the institution.

This get-together not only celebrated the past achievements of the alumni but also fostered a strong sense of community and inspiration for future generations.
